FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Jesus the True Vine

John 15: 1-8

Prayerful reflection:

Father, many things interfere with our connection to you. Help us to be focused and not distracted. Fix our hearts on you. Offence, grudges, envy, doubt, worldly desires and fear dilute the truth of who you are; help us overcome them.

A vine grows from a tree, it does not just appear overnight. To abide in You is to grow and mature spiritually. Nurture my spirit and soul with your Word. Being part of the vine is not always rosy. There are moments of pruning that help us to accept your love and training as we grow.

As a part of the body of Christ, help me to flourish, to thrive and to bear fruit in all areas of my life. Prune all the relationships and things in my life that are hindering me from abiding in you. I want you to dwell in me, to abide in me, to remain in my life. Keep me plugged in to you as my source.

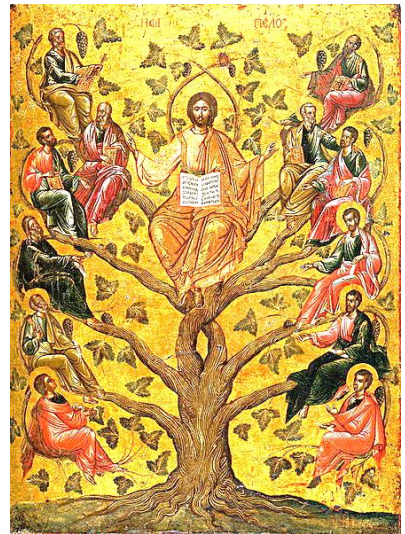

Let me bear good fruit! No branch can bear good fruit by itself. Keep me connected to you so that I'm productive and fruitful, so that all the fruits of the Holy Spirit are multiplying in my life joy, peace, kindness. Lord let the gifts of the spirit in me bear good fruit in the lives of others. Lord, please forgive us for our doubt and unbelief and anything else that keeps us away from your presence.

Forgive us for seeking help, power, hope and strength from people and things instead of You. Help us to grow in our faith. Father, I thank you because you have not given up on me...

Thank you for the seeds you've sown in my life, because you're calling forth life and fruit out of me.

Lord, I surrender all of this to you in Jesus name and ask that you remain in charge of my life.
