Jesus Blesses Little Children

Mark 10:2-16

Reflection:

- Jesus' teaching on marriage may be a joyful message to those who receive from God the wonderful gift of marital union but a source of anguish for those whose attempt at marriage has failed. In 'Amoris Laetitia', Pope Francis invites Christian families "to be a sign of mercy and closeness wherever family life remains imperfect or lacks peace and joy". He offers "an invitation to mercy and the pastoral discernment of those situations that fall short of what the Lord demands of us" (#5-6). Mercy is the love which all of us need to experience, regardless of our life-history or track record.
- The teaching on marriage and adultery needs to be read alongside Jesus' reminder that the child, and the child's receptiveness to love, is the 'key' to the Kingdom of God. The passage is less about the regulations for ordering relationships, and more of a glimpse or vision of God's loving plan for his children. And this plan remains 'good news' for everyone, not just the fortunate ones.

Prayer:

We pray for all married couples. May the compassion of Christ touch all those who are experiencing or have experienced a difficult marriage.

We ask this in Christ's name, Amen.

THANK YOU

A very special thank you to Fr. Joseph P. Sullivan for celebrating weekly Mass at St. Aloysius Parish and to Digital Committee chair, Jacques Beaulieu, together with the liturgical team and volunteers, whose ongoing efforts continue to make live-streaming of Sunday Masses possible for those unable to attend Mass in person.

COMMUNITY NEWS

SYNOD TO LAUNCH IN MONTREAL

Pope Francis has launched a synodal process that will take place between October 2021 and October 2023. It is a "dynamism of mutual listening, conducted at all levels of the Church, involving the whole people of God." The first level of consultation involves each of us. The "sensus fidei" (sense of the faith) qualifies each of us to take part in discerning the path forward for the Church.

For more information about the process, visit the Synod website to view the preparatory Vatican documents.

In Montreal, Archbishop Christian Lépine will hold an opening Mass for the synodal process on Sunday, October 17, 5 p.m. at Mary Queen of the World Cathedral. All are welcome in person, or to follow the celebration online via the diocesan YouTube channel.

As a follow-up to the Sept. 13 diocesan launch of the new pastoral year, details of how you can be involved at the local level in Montreal will be shared in the next diocesan Communiqué from the Vicar General's Office of General Coordination.
