ST. PHILIP NERI, PATRON SAINT OF HUMOUR, JOY FEAST DAY: MAY 26

St. Philip Neri was a Christian missionary and founder of the Congregation of the Oratory, a community of Catholic priests and lay brothers.

He was born in Florence on July 21, 1515 as one of four children to Francesco Neri.

From a very young age, Philip was known for being cheerful and obedient. He was affectionately referred to as "good little Phil." He received his early teachings from friars at the Dominican monastery in Florence, San Marco.

At 18-years-old, Philip went off to live with a wealthy family member in San Germano. He was sent there to assist in - and possibly inherit - the family business. However, soon after his arrival, Philip experienced a mystical vision, which he eventually spoke of as his Christian conversion. This event was an encounter with the Lord and it dramatically changed his life.

Philip, compared to Socrates, had a knack for starting up conversations and leading his listeners to consider a new and better way of life, the Christian Way. He easily caught others' attention with his warm personality and incredible sense of humor. He encouraged groups of people to gather for discussions, studies, prayer and the enjoyment of music. His customary question was always, "Well, brothers, when shall we begin to do good?"

Birth: July 21, 1515

Death: May 26, 1595

Beatified By: May 11, 1615 by Pope Paul V

Canonized By: March 12, 1622 by Pope Gregory XV

Prayer to St. Philip Neri

O Holy St. Philip Neri, patron saint of joy, you who trusted Scripture's promise that the Lord is always at hand and that we need not to have anxiety about anything.

In your compassion heal our worries and sorrows and lift the burdens from our hearts. We come to you as one whose heart swells with abundant love for God and all creation. Hear us, we pray, especially in the intentions we carry in our heart.

Keep us safe through your loving intercession, and may the joy of the Holy Spirit which filled your heart, St. Philip, transform our lives and bring us peace. Amen.

BALD AND BEAUTIFUL HEROES! - THE SACRED HEART SCHOOL OF MONTREAL

Sacred Heart Student Giving Back to the Community with the Help of the Montreal Children's Hospital: On Monday, May 29, SHSM Sec. V student, Olivia Iorio, will be shaving her head for cancer, at the school, in honour of her cousin, Vincenzo, who was diagnosed with neuroblastoma, a cancer that forms in different types of nerve tissues. "From then on, I knew right away what I had to do and that I did not want to back down!" said Olivia. Sadly, Vincenzo passed away in April - he was 8 years old. Olivia's goal is to raise $10,000 for the Montreal Children's Hematology/Oncology Department. With the support of her family, close friends, and the Sacred Heart community, she will be shaving her head and will be going to her graduation dance bald! Her donated hair will be made into a wig for a little girl or boy that needs it.
