14th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Prepare for prayer today by echoing the words of this song in your own heart as an offering to God.

Today we hear a reading from the Prophet Zechariah, that speaks of the hopes that the Jewish people had for the day when the one to be sent by God finally arrived.

Zechariah 9:9-10

The Lord says this:

Rejoice greatly, O daughter Zion!
Shout aloud, O daughter Jerusalem!
Lo, your king comes to you;
triumphant and victorious is he,
humble and riding on a donkey,
on a colt, the foal of a donkey.
He will cut off the chariot from Ephraim and the warhorse from Jerusalem;
and the battle-bow shall be cut off,
and he shall command peace to the nations;
his dominion shall be from sea to sea,
and from the River to the ends of the earth.

Zechariah speaks of a time of universal peace, a time presided over by the King God has appointed, a time of widespread rejoicing. What is your first reaction when you hear these promises?

The King who is coming is both triumphant and humble, a forceful leader and yet one who remains close to his people. Could you imagine yourself following a leader of that kind? What would that be like?

The people of Jerusalem are instructed to “rejoice greatly” when all this come to pass. What would God have to do to lead you to rejoice greatly in this way?

Later Christian tradition applies these words to the entry into Jerusalem that Jesus made on Palm Sunday, at the start of his Passion. As you listen again, see if this context changes the way in which you hear these words, how they feel or what they mean to you.

Take a moment to ask God for whatever you need to meet the challenge of being a disciple.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

NOTES FROM THREE-EVENING REFLECTION

Thank you to those who took part in last week's three-evening online retreat, as announced in the June 28th bulletin.

As requested, here are some notes from the evening themed What does the 'fear of God' really mean?

To 'fear God' is:

- To have the proper reverence and awe for Him, so we do whatever is required of us to serve Him. (Psalm 89:7; Hebrews 12:28-29)
- To stand before His face in all we do in order to be pleasing to Him, without allowing ourselves to be influenced by wanting the good opinion of people. (1 Peter 1:24-25)
- To know that we do not give account to anyone but God for our actions.
- To fear to act against His will.
- To fear to dishonour Him with our actions. This will make sure that we act righteously and with love and goodness to our fellow man.
- To fear to misrepresent Him or His Word in the world.
- To fear to take the weight and importance of what God has called us to, and the ministry He has given us lightly.
- A hatred for sin; a seriousness about how enormously sinful it is. (Romans 7:13)
- To love Him with all our heart, all our soul, and all our strength, and to keep His commandments. (Deuteronomy 6:4-5; Deuteronomy 10:12-13; Matthew 22:36-38)
