The Parable of the Wicked Tenants

Reflection

- God works in the vineyard, seeds, grafts, cuts – which can hurt, but it is necessary. I give to God, what hurts me, where I do not see the way forward, what I regret.
- The path is shown where it is least expected. Where did the Lord surprise me lately, and the fruit is now wonderful in my eyes? I thank Him for these gifts.
- Our heart seeks dialogue with God to feed with God's juice. When we break it, like wine makers, we seek this juice with man – so the vineyard becomes open, without borders, and everyone can obstruct it in its own way. In which relationship in my life, is a lively craving for dignity?

Prayer:

God gives us everything to be fruitful – the earth, the vine, the press, the tower. But we have our ideas about what to do in the vineyard and how. Jesus, you come to the vineyard to cultivate it, breathe life into it, support it, do give the fruits. Let me give you to cultivate my vineyard. Bless me, Father, that I will be the vineyard that will bear fruit. Amen.
