The Question about Paying Taxes

Reflection

- Jesus, in his response to his questioners, reminds us that we are all citizens of two dominions – the spiritual and the temporal. We have duties to each. Generally, these loyalties are not in conflict. However, there are nonetheless occasions when we need to speak – out of love - against neglect or inequitable behaviour by our Government, especially in regard to social injustice. When conflict arises between spiritual and temporal powers, it is wise to keep in mind St Thomas More's famous maxim, "The King's good servant, but God's first".
- Jesus remains free and firm in face of the plots against him by the Pharisees who try to catch him out and find a way to silence him with a barbed question. Is it right to pay taxes to a foreign power? If he says yes, he is against them, his own people. If he says no, they will report him to the Romans and have him arrested. You can see in the text the wisdom of his answer.
- To be a good citizen and to serve God are not in contradiction, since God works through all human systems and institutions to build the final community of love. God needs me to help build good relationships wherever I find myself.

Caesar's Coin, by Peter Paul Rubens

Prayer:

Lord, help me to remember that I am made in the image of God, indelibly stamped with God's character; guide me so that I may bring value to the people among whom I live as I witness to your presence and life. Amen.
